SUGGESTED ANSWER

That evening, however, as soon as she confessed her great past love / love from the past, Ileana changed once again: she began to resemble the woman I had known at the beginning, as though until then she had been uneasy and troubled by a concern unfamiliar to her. Once again, she reminded me how easily I had forgotten my promise to bring her the book. She then asked me whether novelists truly always recounted their own experiences, and to what extent the woman they had loved could be transformed into the heroine of a book. She tried / was trying, in every way / by any means, to divert / steer the conversation into a harmless field / realm – that of neutral facts. I was beginning to come to my senses, and I was glad to find an intelligent woman with whom I could talk about the art and technique of writing.

SUBIECTUL B – INTEGRATED SKILLS (50 points)
